

Instructional Objectives

To learn to listen, see, understand and create

- Articulate an informed personal opinion of and response to major Art/Music works through knowledge and understanding of art in all its forms
- Develop a personal understanding of the human need for the aesthetic
- Express themselves through Art and/or Music in creating original compositions or artifacts in such a way that they feel a sense of achievement and personal worth in what they do and achieve
- Find aesthetic and intellectual stimulation and satisfaction through the understanding, appreciation and creation of Art
- Develop fine craftsmanship, proficient skills in 3-dimensional, graphic and digital image production, on all levels from Prep foundations to Advanced college-level (AP).
- Develop musicianship and performance skills

To contribute to personal development as an RC student.

- Gain a sense of responsibility and respect for themselves and their learning, the environment and physical space, the rights and work of others, the larger community both at home and abroad
- Develop intellectual curiosity
- Reflect on and reviews their own work and progress
- Work in a collaborative and collegiate way
- Develop critical thinking, creative problem solving, independence of thought and attitude to learning
- Is aware of and sensitivity to multicultural and historical influences, specifically in art and music
- Gain environmental awareness, comprehends the skills needed for global citizenship in the 21st century
- Develop knowledge of English, in both general language skills and use of subject-specific terminology